Dear Big Kodi,

Hey son! It's mom, just checking in on you. I hope you are well and safe, and that your life is NOTHING like this terrible coronavirus situation we have here in 2020. For the past 3 months, everything has been so different; we can't go places, or see people like we used to because the virus spreads so easily. We can't even shake hands or hug! It's been a lot of work trying to get all your school work done at home, since Dad and I are both doctors so we have to go to work more than ever now. On the bright side, having you all at home really cheers me up, and I have learned a few things about distance learning and meetings.

Hopefully, this will all pass soon and we'll have a great normal summer. I really want to have a nice birthday party and it is coming soon. Sorry we had to stay home for yours, but it was still fun! Take care of yourself, sweetie.

Love, Mom
LETTER TO MYSELF

May 17, 2020

Dear future me,

The Coronavirus is everywhere and has caused some big changes in the world. I hate the Coronavirus because it has killed 80,000 people. Do you remember when everyone got homeschooled because of the Coronavirus, so we did e-learning instead? If it’s over I’ll be sooo happy. We do e-learning on this app called Google Classroom. On the app there are lessons on videos, Zoom meeting, morning announcements and specials. Kids have to use a computer or iPad to access Google Classroom. So I work on my mom’s laptop.

Peace out!

Love, Past me.
