DEAR, Jamison,

This has been a very interesting time due to the coronavirus. We have been quarantined into our homes. We have had to learn from our houses and see our friends and teachers only via Zoom meetings. We have spent a lot of time in our pajamas, sitting around on computers.

We miss seeing Grandma and Grandpa and uncle.

Your First Communion was postponed, our Disney Trip was cancelled and your brother’s fifth grade Graduation was cancelled too.

This is a hard time for us, but hopefully we will be able to go out to see our friends and family soon.

LOVE,

Mom & Dad

Kid's Choice

Name: Jamison

My class is learning about inferring as a comprehension strategy proficient readers use to better understand their reading. When I read, Mighty Robots
I inferred the meaning of these unknown words.

Strategy codes:
- Picture clues = P. Clues
- Text clues = T. Clues
- Re-reading = R.R.
- Schema = S
